

Praying through this week 27th July

Praying through this week 27th July

For everything that was written in the past was written to teach us, so that through endurance and encouragement of the scriptures, we might have hope (Romans 15:4)

For everything that was written in the past was written to teach us, so that through endurance and encouragement of the scriptures,
we might have hope (Romans 15:4)

Loving Lord, we thank you that you are ever present with us.

Your love for us endures forever.

When the way ahead seems unsure,
when our faith and trust tremble,
remind us that you are walking beside us, your guiding light shining ahead -

drawing us ever closer into your comforting presence.

Give us grace that as we journey with you,
guided by your word in scripture,
through our deepening faith and trust in you,
we may endure all that lies before us,
Seeing only your enduring love for us.

Loving Lord, we thank you that you are ever present with us.

Your love for us endures forever.

When the way ahead seems unsure,
when our faith and trust tremble,
remind us that you are walking beside us,
your guiding light shining ahead -

drawing us ever closer into your comforting presence.

Give us grace that as we journey with you,
guided by your word in scripture,
through our deepening faith and trust in you,
we may endure all that lies before us,
Seeing only your enduring love for us.

