

Praying through this week 22nd February 2021

As I admired a kingfisher on a branch, a red kite soared above me and an egret fished nearby. Day 1 of Lockdown 3 on a small stretch of local river; a small haven of God's creation in an urban environment. Extraordinary glimpses of God's creation and His grace in revealing it to me on an otherwise ordinary day. An opportunity to reconnect with Him through the wonder of all that He made and be reminded that he "protects me under his wings" Psalm 91:4

- God can take us by surprise. Are we able to allow ourselves to be mindful of and alert to His presence in our lives?

God created the world because He loved us. He made us in His image and entrusted it into our care.

- Whether we do so from an armchair as we watch a nature programme on TV or gaze through a window, can we revel in God's love in all that He gifted us?
- Ponder, perhaps, on the wonder of God's love for us through creation, by reflecting on a picture, TV image, or in listening to birdsong through an open window.

Psalm 139:14 "I praise you because I am fearfully and wonderfully made; your works are wonderful, I know that full well." Rachel C
