

Praying Through This Week 17th May 2021

Praying Through This Week 17th May 2021

A friend loves at all times, and a brother is born for a time of adversity.
(Proverbs 17:17)

A friend loves at all times, and a brother is born for a time of adversity.
(Proverbs 17:17)

Part of being a friend is being there for the good and the bad.
To help them through the challenging times,
and to celebrate with them in the good times.

Part of being a friend is being there for the good and the bad.
To help them through the challenging times,
and to celebrate with them in the good times.

It is this balance that makes the best friendships so special, we can rely on the fact that there is someone always there to share things with, and they reciprocate by always being there for us.

It is this balance that makes the best friendships so special, we can rely on the fact that there is someone always there to share things with, and they reciprocate by always being there for us.

God is the best of friends. He has stuck with us through the very best and very worst. He knows everything about us, and still chooses to be there for us, what more could we ask?

God is the best of friends. He has stuck with us through the very best and very worst. He knows everything about us, and still chooses to be there for us, what more could we ask?

We are quick to ask for his help when times are difficult, and he will always listen. But do we always remember him in the good times? Do we always remember to give our thanks for the good times, and his part in that?

We are quick to ask for his help when times are difficult, and he will always listen. But do we always remember him in the good times? Do we always remember to give our thanks for the good times, and his part in that?

Let us always remember the amazing things he has brought to our lives – and thank him for that.

Let us always remember the amazing things he has brought to our lives – and thank him for that.

