

Praying Through This Week 11th April 2022

“the hour has come for the son of man to be glorified” (John 20:23)

Lord Jesus, it had been a momentous week, the crowds cheering as you entered Jerusalem on that humble donkey. As we prepare our hearts for Easter, thank you that in your humility, you were teaching us that “the least of us matters, we are all loved by You.

Lord we know that we matter to You. Thank You for loving us and for Your faithful presence by our sides.

We thank you for your example that when you saw injustice and wrongdoing in the Temple, You acted. In the face of injustice, give us courage and grace to act with love and care.

Now, at this supper when You washed our dirty feet. You, humbly serving me, teaching me by example to serve others, in the same way Lord, help us to serve with love, as You serve us.

Then, when You broke the bread and explained that “this is my body given for you”...and the “wine”...”poured out for us, for me” –

Lord, give us the grace to “be” with and remember always your Eucharistic words and hold the meaning of Your every word close to our heart each time we take Communion - with You.

And be with us, loving Lord, at the foot of Your cross as with undying gratitude, we kneel before You, and all that You are.

Amen.
