

Praying Through This Week 22nd August 2022

When things in life are not going well for us, it is hard for us to be happy. It is easy to say 'look for the positives' but in reality this is much harder to do. But we do have a God that is good, and that is something that should bring us happiness.

But what does God is good, really mean? Simply put, God is good, all the time. He's so willing to forgive. So eager to answer prayer, and so ready to bless us beyond what we deserve, or hope for.

Lord, you are my hope when times are rough.
When I encounter heavy burdens, you lift me up
and give me reason to hope for the future.
Through you, my heart becomes filled with joy.
I have faith that everything that happens is a part of your plan.
No matter what happens during this day,
I know that your everlasting joy will await me. Amen.
Vicky

Praying Through This Week 22nd August 2022

When things in life are not going well for us, it is hard for us to be happy.

It is easy to say 'look for the positives' but in reality this is much harder to do. But we do have a God that is good, and that is something that should bring us happiness.

But what does God is good, really mean? Simply put, God is good, all the time. He's so willing to forgive. So eager to answer prayer, and so ready to bless us beyond what we deserve, or hope for.

Lord, you are my hope when times are rough.
When I encounter heavy burdens, you lift me up
and give me reason to hope for the future.
Through you, my heart becomes filled with joy.
I have faith that everything that happens is a part of your plan.
No matter what happens during this day,
I know that your everlasting joy will await me. Amen.
Vicky