

But I tell you, love your enemies and pray for those who persecute you. Matthew 5:44

As with all things in life, Jesus never encourages us to take the easy option. Not only does he tell us to love our neighbours, but also our enemies, and to even pray for them?

How do we go about this?

Lord Jesus, following Your example and command, we pray for our enemies today.

We ask that You would fill our lives with the Holy Spirit's power and might. Send Your love flowing through us.

Help us to release any unforgiveness, thoughts of revenge, or hateful emotions that we hold.

Give us wisdom as we seek how to bless, to love, and to pray for our enemies.

We pray for you to bless our enemies and to orchestrate events in their lives that will lead them to you.

Show them mercy before it is too late—and pray that they would, in turn, be merciful to others. Amen
