

Almighty and Everlasting God, we ask you to hear us as we pray for your Church, the world, our local community and people in need.

Father, we thank you for giving us so much to enjoy in the world. Open our eyes to see all the beauty of Autumn around us; help us to appreciate your greatness in giving us the different seasons, each fulfilling our needs. Help us to safeguard them so that our children and future generations will benefit from the natural beauty which you have created.

Lord in your mercy, hear our prayer

Lord, we pray for the fracture and conflict we see in the news. Enable us to know how to pray when conflict seems insurmountable. Bring your peace and reconciliation.

God today we pray for migrants and refugees, for those whose only constant thing is change. As they wander as Abraham did, looking for home, would You demonstrate Your everlasting love and care for them.

Lord we pray for all who are affected by the knife and gun killings in Thailand this week, and those who mourn the loss of loved ones. We pray that those with influence and authority will heed and promote the calls for tolerance, peace and justice.

Lord, in your mercy, hear our prayer.

Loving God, we pray for leaders and governments, that they will acknowledge the needs of those who are poor and respond with generosity. Give them wisdom as they seek solutions to the rising costs many are facing.

Lord in your mercy hear our prayer.

Lord Jesus we lift our clergy team to you, we thank you for Jenni, Rachel and Amanda. Guide them daily and continue to use them for your glory. Help us to encourage and honour them in all they do. Help us to show our gratitude personally but also by us grasping their vision, your vision, for your church.

We pray for our young people and children's workers as they teach our young people and have fun doing so. Thank you for their dedication and commitment to leading them.
