Fairness

"Mighty King, lover of justice, you have established fairness." (Psalm 99:4 NLT)

Justice, fairness. What do we associate with them? Mercy perhaps?
Compassion? Kindness ...?

Perhaps we could imagine we're Jesus' followers, travelling with Him?

We see Him reaching out with compassion to the lepers, society's outcasts. (Matthew 8:1-3)

We look on as He confounds the Pharisees who are very publicly humiliating the woman caught in adultery (John 8:3-11)

We hear Him call "Come" to the blind man begging by the roadside when others are trying to exclude him. (Luke 18:35-42)

We watch Him sweeping aside social and cultural divisions as he speaks to the Samaritan woman at the well (John 4:4-26)

What can we learn from Jesus? How might He want us to follow in His footsteps today, maybe in new ways we've not considered

"Jesus went around doing good." (Acts 10:38)

May we be like Jesus. Maureen
