

Praying through the week 20th March 2023

“O Jerusalem, Jerusalem, you who kill the prophets and stone those sent to you, how often I have longed to gather your children together, as a hen gathers her chicks under her wings, but you were not willing!” Luke 13:34

- As we prepare, perhaps, to meet with Jesus at the cross this Easter, can we hold this image in our minds... of Jesus wanting to draw us close, to enfold us with his loving, protective arms...? He longs to bring peace to our hearts... our communities (Luke 19:42).
- Can you, perhaps, allow yourself to be gathered up in this way... nestle into Jesus and His warm, embracing arms... arms He stretched wide for you on the cross... and say ‘Yes’ to his offer of peace and a fresh pathway with Him?

Perhaps give thanks to Jesus... for his love and care... and ask how you can live this out in your life today... and prepare to join the crowds in proclaiming “...’Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.’” Luke 13:35
