Harvest

“When you reap the harvest of your land, do not reap to the very edges of your field or gather the gleanings of your harvest. Leave them for the poor and the alien.”

(Leviticus 23:22)

As you read these words of Scripture does the story of Ruth and Boaz come to mind? Can you picture the scene? The reapers are gathering in the harvest ...Ruth is following behind them....the sun is hot ...it's thirsty, tiring work, stooping to pick up the left-over stalks of grain. ...

But Boaz goes beyond what the law requires. He offers Ruth food and water and tells his men to “Pull out some stalks for her from the bundles and leave them for her to pick up.”

Can we imagine how much these little extra acts of kindness and generosity must have meant to Ruth? How can Boaz be an example for us to follow today?

As we give thanks to God for all He so generously provides for us every day, let's listen, too, for His voice. Maybe he has new things to show us this Harvest time about sowing and reaping?
