Remembrance

Then Samuel took a stone and set it up;
for he said, "Till now the Lord has helped us."

"Then Samuel took a stone and set it up. ...He named it Ebenezer, saying, 'Thus far has the Lord helped us.'" (1 Samuel 7:12)

Samuel set up the Ebenezer stone (the stone of help) to help the Israelites remember the victory God had given them over the Philistines.

What might an 'Ebenezer stone' look like for you and me today?
In the busy-ness of life would it be helpful to have something that reminds us of God's past mercies and goodness to us?

Perhaps you might like to pause now ... to reflect on God's faithfulness ...and begin to remember how God has helped you in the past?

Can you trace some of the ways He has brought you 'thus far'?
Maybe a bigger picture is starting to emerge?

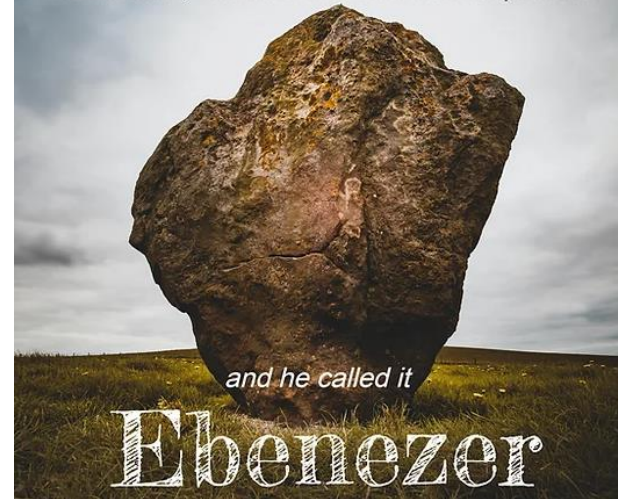

What is in your heart, as you remember, that you would like to share with God?
