

Praying through the week 26th February 2024
The Old Testament

“The Lord bless you and keep you; the Lord make his face to shine upon you (smile on you NLT) and be gracious to you; The Lord turn his face towards you and give you peace”(Numbers 6:24-27)

The Old Testament shows us how God revealed Himself to His people of long ago - through His actions...His miracles...His prophets ... This blessing, God said Aaron was to pray over the Israelites so many centuries ago is still so relevant and familiar to us today. What does it reveal to us of God ? Can we catch a glimpse of His heart for His people then - and for us today? His desire to bless?

“The Lord ... keep you” Protect you? Guard you? Watch over you? In what ways have you experienced God’s ‘keeping’ power? “You are my rock and my fortress,” the psalmist said.(Psalm 71:3b) How often do we think of God in this way? “The Lord smile on you” Are you able to picture God smiling at you? Delighting in you? Perhaps you might like to rest a while in His presence just enjoying His smile? ...And then maybe you might want to use the words of this beautiful blessing to pray for someone? Maureen

Praying through the week 26th February 2024
The Old Testament

“The Lord bless you and keep you; the Lord make his face to shine upon you (smile on you NLT) and be gracious to you; The Lord turn his face towards you and give you peace”(Numbers 6:24-27)

The Old Testament shows us how God revealed Himself to His people of long ago - through His actions...His miracles...His prophets ... This blessing, God said Aaron was to pray over the Israelites so many centuries ago is still so relevant and familiar to us today. What does it reveal to us of God ? Can we catch a glimpse of His heart for His people then - and for us today? His desire to bless?

“The Lord ... keep you” Protect you? Guard you? Watch over you? In what ways have you experienced God’s ‘keeping’ power? “You are my rock and my fortress,” the psalmist said.(Psalm 71:3b) How often do we think of God in this way? “The Lord smile on you” Are you able to picture God smiling at you? Delighting in you? Perhaps you might like to rest a while in His presence just enjoying His smile? ...And then maybe you might want to use the words of this beautiful blessing to pray for someone? Maureen