

Praying through the week 22nd July 2024
The New Testament

We catch sight of Jesus many times in the Old Testament but He seems to be shrouded from us. It's in the New Testament that we can see Him clearly and meet with Him.

Jesus, “The light of the world” (John 9:5), “The true light that gives light to every man” (John1:9) comes and takes ‘centre stage’. I wonder, though, whether we can say that He has ‘centre stage’ in our lives ...always?

Who or what might take priority over Jesus in our hearts, perhaps without us even being aware it was happening?

Is there anything that comes to mind that we might want to talk over with Him?

“Jesus be the centre
Be my source, be my light
Jesus”
