The Epistles: God's Grace Changes Us – Doesn't it?

Paul's letter to the Gal 5:22 But the fruit of the spirit is love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness, and self-control.

So much of Paul's writing is concerned with reflecting on the difference God's grace and Jesus' sacrifice for us, have changed us.

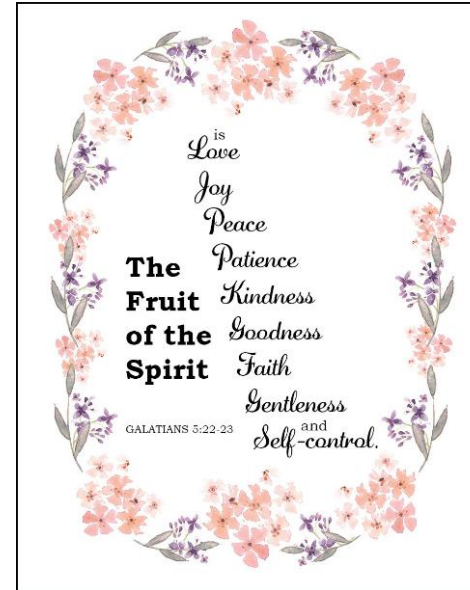

"Lord give me the grace to accept your grace,
Your boundless grace that knows no limits,
matchless, forgiving, undeserved, loving grace,
undemanding, not earned...given in love,
received...the glory of God's grace in us changing us to live Your gospel of

" love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness and self control."

Perhaps we can spend a moment now thanking God for times when we have been able to live these fruits of the spirit with those around us, remembering Paul's words that "when we are indwelt by the spirit we are propelled outwards to acts of love"
