

“...and the star they had seen when it rose went ahead of them until it stopped over the place where the child was.” Matthew 2:9

This Christmas, can we respond to the cry of this newborn baby, who longs for us to ‘look up’ and allow ourselves to be guided towards Him...?

The Good News of Jesus’ birth was and is revealed to people in different ways...

Can we invite Jesus to shine the light of that star into our hearts, helping us to notice what draws us towards Him... and how it feels when we do...?

As we prepare to meet with Him in the stable in a few days’ time, how can we make room in our lives and in our hearts for more encounters with Him...?

Linger a while in the nativity scene this Christmas... using all your senses, soak in the love and joy... and, as the noises and demands of the world at this time of year gradually quieten... meet with your Prince of Peace...and the gift of new beginnings and life with Him.

“...they saw the child with his mother Mary, and they bowed down and worshiped him.” Matthew 2:11

Rachel

“...and the star they had seen when it rose went ahead of them until it stopped over the place where the child was.” Matthew 2:9

This Christmas, can we respond to the cry of this newborn baby, who longs for us to ‘look up’ and allow ourselves to be guided towards Him...?

The Good News of Jesus’ birth was and is revealed to people in different ways...

Can we invite Jesus to shine the light of that star into our hearts, helping us to notice what draws us towards Him... and how it feels when we do...?

As we prepare to meet with Him in the stable in a few days’ time, how can we make room in our lives and in our hearts for more encounters with Him...?

Linger a while in the nativity scene this Christmas... using all your senses, soak in the love and joy... and, as the noises and demands of the world at this time of year gradually quieten... meet with your Prince of Peace...and the gift of new beginnings and life with Him.

“...they saw the child with his mother Mary, and they bowed down and worshiped him.” Matthew 2:11 - Rachel