Paul the Evangelist

“This man is my chosen instrument to carry my name before the Gentiles and their kings and before the people of Israel.”(Acts 9:15)

These words were spoken by Jesus to Ananias about Paul. In Acts we read how Paul was always ready, in all circumstances, to tell others the good news about Jesus.

In Philippi he spoke to a group of devout women praying by the riverside, and witnessed to the jailer guarding him. (Acts 16)
In Athens he “reasoned in the synagogue with the Jews and the God-fearing Greeks, as well as in the market-place day by day with those who happened to be there.” (Acts 17:17)

We too are God’s chosen instruments, called to share the good news of Jesus with others. What can we learn from Paul’s example? Are we as ready to share the love of Jesus? Perhaps It’s hard to find the right words? Maybe fear stops us? Jesus does understand. Let’s talk to Him and tell Him how we feel, and ask Him to enable us to be His witnesses so that we might see many more’ lives transformed by the light and love of Jesus’.

“God can do anything, you know - far more than you could ever imagine or guess or request in your wildest dreams! “
