

Praying through the week 24th March 2025
Elizabeth

“Then Jesus told them a parable about their need to pray always and not to lose heart.” Luke 18:1 RSV

I wonder if there has ever been a time when you began to lose heart? When God seemed to be silent to your prayers ...and you waited and waited for Him to answer? Can you remember how you thought and felt then? Perhaps you are still waiting?

I wonder if Elizabeth’s story might encourage us when we’re feeling confused and disappointed at God’s seeming silence? (Luke 1) Elizabeth was devout and would have been praying and waiting for the long-awaited Messiah to come.

Sadly she had no children, seen by many at that time as a sign of God’s disfavour. Can we possibly imagine how hard it must have been for Elizabeth as she prayed ...and waited...and the years passed by?

But today we can clearly see how God answered her prayers, in His perfect timing and in ways far more wonderful than she could ever have dreamed of.

Does Elizabeth’s story encourage us to keep praying? Maybe we have things we would like to talk to God about now as we ask for the Spirit's help to keep looking to Jesus, trusting Him and to “Pray always and not lose heart.” Maureen

Praying through the week 24th March 2025
Elizabeth

“Then Jesus told them a parable about their need to pray always and not to lose heart.” Luke 18:1 RSV

I wonder if there has ever been a time when you began to lose heart? When God seemed to be silent to your prayers ...and you waited and waited for Him to answer? Can you remember how you thought and felt then? Perhaps you are still waiting?

I wonder if Elizabeth’s story might encourage us when we’re feeling confused and disappointed at God’s seeming silence? (Luke 1). Elizabeth was devout and would have been praying and waiting for the long-awaited Messiah to come.

Sadly she had no children, seen by many at that time as a sign of God’s disfavour. Can we possibly imagine how hard it must have been for Elizabeth as she prayed ...and waited...and the years passed by?

But today we can clearly see how God answered her prayers, in His perfect timing and in ways far more wonderful than she could ever have dreamed of.

Does Elizabeth’s story encourage us to keep praying? Maybe we have things we would like to talk to God about now as we ask for the Spirit's help to keep looking to Jesus, trusting Him and to “Pray always and not lose heart.” Maureen