

Praying through the week 28th April 2025

"He has risen! He is not here.... But go, tell his disciples and Peter, 'He is going ahead of you into Galilee. There you will see him, just as he told you.'" (Mark 16 :6-7)

This was the message the angel gave to Mary Magdalene, Mary the mother of James and Salome when they entered the tomb very early in the morning to anoint Jesus' body with spices. John graphically tells us what happened when some of the disciples did meet with Jesus by the Sea of Galilee (John 21:1-14).

"He is going ahead of you..." What images come to mind, what thoughts do we have as we reflect on these words? Are they words of comfort, encouragement for us? Can we think of times when we have been aware of Jesus 'going ahead' ... preparing the way ... opening doors ...? Perhaps, with hindsight we can see more clearly now than we could before? Maybe, for some the words "He is going ahead of you" will have special significance today?

Shall we gather up all our thoughts and bring them to Jesus in grateful thanks and praise? Let's worship our risen, ascended and glorified Lord Jesus. Maureen

Praying through the week 28th April 2025

"He has risen! He is not here.... But go, tell his disciples and Peter, 'He is going ahead of you into Galilee. There you will see him, just as he told you.'" (Mark 16 :6-7)

This was the message the angel gave to Mary Magdalene, Mary the mother of James and Salome when they entered the tomb very early in the morning to anoint Jesus' body with spices. John graphically tells us what happened when some of the disciples did meet with Jesus by the Sea of Galilee (John 21:1-14).

"He is going ahead of you..." What images come to mind, what thoughts do we have as we reflect on these words? Are they words of comfort, encouragement for us? Can we think of times when we have been aware of Jesus 'going ahead' ... preparing the way ... opening doors ...? Perhaps, with hindsight we can see more clearly now than we could before? Maybe, for some the words "He is going ahead of you" will have special significance today?

Shall we gather up all our thoughts and bring them to Jesus in grateful thanks and praise? Let's worship our risen, ascended and glorified Lord Jesus. Maureen