

Praying through the week 9th June 2025

Abraham – Father of Faith

And the scripture was fulfilled that says, “Abraham believed God, and it was credited to him as righteousness,” and he was called God’s friend.

James 2:23

What greater privilege could there be than to be described as God’s friend?
What sort of person would we think that God would pick?

Is he looking for the perfect person?

I don’t think so, after all that is something that very few, if not none of us will achieve. But he does want us to believe, to have trust, to not just think a good life, but to live out that good life.

But will we sometimes make mistakes?

Yes, but as a friend of God, we can ask for his forgiveness, and his guidance to put things right, and to be better moving forward.

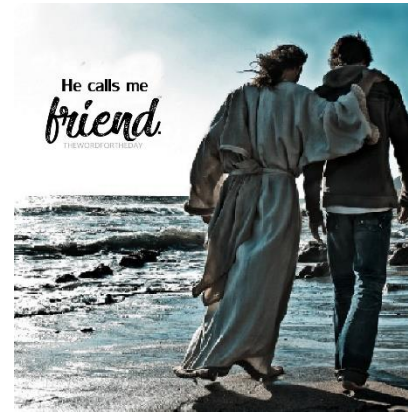

God is looking for YOU, yes all of us to be his friends.

Almighty Father, I thank You for granting me the strength to remain faithful to You always. Today I rejoice, for my heart is filled with joy –joy for simply being Your friend. Though sometimes I may waver, I know that at the end of every day, You are always waiting for me to come home to You. I shall continue to praise Your name until the end of my days. Everything I lift up to you. Amen.
